

Ageing
Australia

Consultancy

Ageing Australia's consultancy team provides professional guidance to support aged and community care providers deliver safe and high-quality care that older Australians can trust.

- Responsive support and longer term engagement for quality assurance and peace of mind.
- Strengthening culture, governance, quality and risk management.
- Building leadership capability and workforce potential.
- Tailored consultancy and bespoke training that is highly responsive to emerging issues and trends.
- Consultancy is offered as a fee for service with a discounted rate for Members.

Just some of the ways that Ageing Australia consultancy can support members and aged care providers.

Quality standards, review and gap analysis.

Organisational governance, risk management and strategic planning.

Clinical governance, incident and complaint management.

Building leadership capacity through coaching and mentoring with CILCA360 accredited practitioners.

Workforce capability through staffing reviews, training and development.

Strategic and business planning advice.

Funding and financial viability.

Support for Rural and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Providers.

Get in touch to schedule your free strategy consultation today via

 1300 222 721  consultancy@ageingaustralia.asn.au  ageingaustralia.asn.au/consultancy